La ética judicial y el imperio del derecho

Por Anthony Kennedy

En El funcionamiento de los tribunales estadounidenses, Periódico electrónico del USIS, Vol. 4, No. 2, Septiembre de 1999

El imperio del derecho implica democracia constitucional, y uno de los componentes esenciales de ese estado de derecho en una democracia constitucional es la neutralidad. En una teleconferencia con jueces eslovenos, Anthony Kennedy, juez del Tribunal Supremo de Estados Unidos, habla sobre la forma en que la rama judicial del gobierno debe garantizar el delicado equilibrio entre la ética judicial y la independencia.
